East Boston March 26th 1845.

Dear Sir,

18 I take the liberty to inform you of some strange doings of the church in regard to Deacon Hall's case. You are aware that a committee was appointed to ascertain the reasons for his leaving the meetings, and that he declined answering that committee. Subsequently, he came before the church, and gave as his reasons, for the step he had taken, "that the pastor preached ~~th~~ contention, and not the gospel; and that he was not edified, his spiritual wants were not met, &c. &c." The church then adjourned, and met on the 25th instant, when it was voted unanomously, that the reasons, ["the pastor's preaching contention &c &c"] given by Deacon Hall, were satisfactory, and that the committee be discharged!!! And there is and of the whole matter! Now I suppose that every man, woman, and child, in East Boston, know the reasons which Deacon Hall gave, and these reasons, are, by a unanimous vote of the church, deemed to be satisfactory. And are thus recorded. Oh strange!—
